HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1943

NUMBER 1

Armistice Comes On Next Thursday And Thanksgiving Soon

One week hence we shall see another November 11, a day long to be remembered, especially by the men of 1918, who were caught in Europe, facing the Germans.

Armistice Day formerly was observed in every little community by some form of appropriate program, but as time passes, forms of observance have passed except to take a day off and...and well, well, just a day off.

So in Hamlin next Thursday, the Herald is told that the business houses are to close for the day, as usual.

After November 11, we skip two weeks and then it is Thanksgiving. The old fashioned Thanksgiving as far as the last Thursday of November is concerned. That DAY is also a holiday, as usual in Hamlin.

Nobody has monkeyed with the Thanksgiving date this year, however it seems somebody is trying to move Christmas up a whole month. Remember, up to this week, no one has announced Christmas is not coming on December 25th.

But to get all the holidays in at one time, Hamlin will observe Christmas Day, and then soon thereafter, New Year's Day. Arrange your business to conform to all the holidays. Some places of business may not observe but others will. So bear in mind wars or no wars, Armistice days roll around, and next week's Thursday, things in Hamlin should be rather quiet.

BOX SUPPER AT HITSON

Friday night at 8:00 o'clock the Victory Club will have a box supper at the Hitson School. Proceeds will go to the National War Fund.

ONE DOWN AND TWO TO GO

Mussolini has toppled like a rag doll from the rack of a carnival stand. Next comes Adolph then Hirohito. American production and our courageous fighting forces are supplying the balance of power to our Allies. But the war leaders say: "There still will be many hard battles ahead. So invest in the victory to come and freedom ahead!"

The Rev. Harrell Closes Year's Work As Pastor of the Methodist Church

The Rev. James E. Harrell, pastor of the Methodist church, will leave Tuesday of next week for the Annual conference in Lubbock, Nov. 9-12. The Rev. Harrell is closing his third year as pastor of the Methodist church here. Sixty members have been received into the church this year, and during his three year pastorate, 144 have been added to the church membership here. All finances have been paid in full for the year and more than $5,000 has been raised for all purposes. Considerable improvements have been made on the church and parsonage property. The Sunday School, the Woman's Society of Christian Service, Youth Fellowship, and the Board of Lay Activities, as well as every department of the church are all doing splendid work and report great accomplishments for the year. The pastor and the people are happy over the things accomplished and are proud to make their good report to conference.

Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of Dallas, will preside over the sessions of the annual conference that is composed of 9 Districts and about 300 pastoral charges. Between five and six hundred pastors and laymen will be delegates to the conference. M. T. York is the lay delegate and Ed Bailey the alternate lay delegate from Hamlin Methodist church. The conference will close with the appointment of preachers to churches in this North West Texas Conference.

PREACHING AT DOVIE

Rev. Hankins of Abilene, will preach Sunday morning at eleven o'clock and Sunday night at the Dovie Church.

FOURSQUARE CHURCH

Revival services are now in progress at the local Foursquare church located at 6th and Alamó. Rev. Yvonne Terry, visiting speaker.

Services every night at 8:00, except Monday.

Saturday night Young People's service, Helen Spratlen speaking.

Special musical program each evening.

Everyone invited.

Rev. R. C. Crager, Pastor

Ways to Offset Carbon Monoxide Gas Hazard Outlined By Gas Co.

Safeguards to offset the carbon monoxide hazard are outlined in a letter to employees of the Lone Star Gas Company from W. A. Breeland of Dallas, safety supervisor for the company. Mr. Breeland points out that carbon monoxide is tasteless, colorless and odorless, and the most likely source of carbon monoxide is from the exhaust of automobile engines and improperly designed and improperly adjusted heating appliances, resulting from incomplete combustion of the fuels.

An ally of carbon monoxide is the tightly closed room; the defense against it is proper maintenance of equipment—and ventilation. Never use an open-flame heating appliance in a room that is tightly closed.

To avoid exposure to carbon monoxide poisoning:

Do not allow an automobile or truck engine to run in a closed garage.

Have exhaust system on car or truck checked for leaks.

Always leave one window of the car or body partly down.

See that all cooking, water heating and heating appliances requiring venting are adequately vented.

So that all gas-burning appliances are properly adjusted.

First aid for carbon monoxide poisoning: Get the victim out of the contaminated atmosphere to fresh air quickly; keep the victim warm to stave off the threat of pneumonia; apply the prone pressure method of artificial respiration if breathing has stopped—and continue it until normal respiration is restored or a physician pronounces the victim dead.

Notice To The Public

I wish to announce that I have sold my insurance business to Mrs. Gerald P. Morgan of Hamlin, who now has all of my files in connection with any and all policies now in force which have been issued through my office.

Most of you know Mrs. Morgan, and that she is by no means new in the insurance field. She is capable of taking care of your insurance for you. I feel that all policies now in force, which have passed from my office to her office, are in good hands and will be taken care of to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

Those who have not paid for their policies issued through my office up to November 1st still owe ME for them and I will thank you for your early attention. You may settle with Mrs. Morgan for your policy issued after November 1, 1943.

On behalf of both my son, Arlie and myself, I want to say "thank you" over and over again to all of you who have favored us in either a small or big way during the 27 years that we have striven to serve your insurance needs. Arlie is a long way from Hamlin but I can hear him say "thank you" to all of you. We have both enjoyed serving you through these years and we very heartily extend to you our very best wishes.

Please bear in mind that I am not selling anything but my insurance business. I will continue my other business such as real estate, rentals, loans and farm business, as I have done in the past, and at the same office over the Bank in Hamlin. I will still continue to conduct this on the same high-class level, and I will fully appreciate your business and your confidence.

Watch the Hamlin Herald next week for a letter from me.

West End of Rotan- Hamlin Highway Was Completed Saturday

(From Rotan Advance)

The barriers were taken down and the Rotan-Hamlin highway opened to traffic at 6:00 o'clock last Saturday afternoon. The west eight miles of the road is now complete and work is going on finishing the five miles out of Hamlin that was not completed last year when materials became needed for war purposes.

The five mile gap was oiled Saturday and Sunday and the road will be finished within a day or two, if it is not already finished at this time.

This appears to be as good a piece of road work as there is in the state. There is an absolutely firm roadbed made solid by constant wetting and packing all through the construction period. There are two good coats of asphalt and gravel, and the seal coat is a fine washed sand that will work down to the smoothest road.

Completion of this road will make the distance shorter by several miles from east to west and is a much smoother road than the Jones county pavement that has been traveled by most traffic on the east-west route.

This, incidentally, was the first east-west highway proposed in this part of the state. Its route was originally to extend from Waco to Roswell, New Mexico. There was an organization perfected to promote this highway in 1910 and from that time on people of the Rotan section have tried every means to get action on the road, but evidently there were stronger interests blocking our efforts. Well, after waiting for 33 years, maybe we will appreciate the highway all the more.

TRAINING UNION AT FLAT TOP

There will be a Training Union study course at Flat Top Baptist church Nov. 6 and 7. The course will begin Saturday night at 7:30 and be continued Sunday. Everyone is urged to attend as there will be courses for every age group.

Miss Marjorie Stephens, a missionary attending Hardin-Simmons, and Rev. F. L. Furrar, also a student at Hardin-Simmons, will be there to teach in the course.

Dan D. Jones, Pastor

Mrs. G. W. Drummond Dies in Abilene Hospital

Mrs. G. W. Drummond died Thursday morning, October 28, at four o'clock in the Hendrick Memorial hospital in Abilene. She had been in the hospital 14 days suffering from pneumonia. Her daughter, born Tuesday, October 19, died soon after birth.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hudson, Lois Hudson was born April 22, 1916 in Hamlin. She was married December 21, 1935 to G. W. Drummond and for eight years she and her husband had lived on their farm near Hamlin.

Mrs. Drummond was a member of the Neinda Baptist church where funeral services were held Friday afternoon at three o'clock conducted by the Rev. J. W. Cundieff, pastor of the Hamlin Calvary Baptist church.

Besides her husband and parents, Mrs. Drummond is survived by a son Jackie Wayne, age 6; three brothers, Major Jack E. Hudson of Des Moines, Iowa, and Roy and John Melvin who reside with their parents; and six sisters, Mrs. O. G. Morrison of Ballinger, Mrs. R. C. Walker of Vernon, Mrs. J. A. Griffin of Orange, Mrs. Morris Wright of Fort Worth, Mrs. J. V. Walraven of Watertown, N. Y., and Mrs. C. E. Hastings of McCamey.

Burial was in the Neinda cemetery under the direction of the Barrow funeral home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fomby and little daughter, Sheila of Ovalo, were here Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waggoner and other relatives.

THIS WEEK

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT

AND A LITTLE BIT OF
THAT

ELECTIONS in some sections of the nation this past Tuesday have given some people a lot of satisfaction...especially those who think more about stopping the Democrats than they do of winning a bad war.

—It may not make much difference who has control in this nation, especially for a few years. But to skid out one bunch and hitch up another bunch will not cure anything, if something is wrong. For about a half century this old Ed has boserved elections and kick-outs, over and over again. When one bunch does something that somebody does not like, they start up a howl, and wish for a change. A new bunch gets in and the same cycle starts all over again. Internal government is a constant warfare, and the more business spreads and complicates itself, the greater the political wars.

—ARMISTICE has rolled around again, and that reminds us that the anxiety to get rid of Woodrow Wilson caused this nation to lose a good peace...yes, the peace was scuttled and the president that the war-torn peoples of the world looked upon as the greatest man in the world, was scuttled by politicians who feared that he might perpetuate his party.

—Another Armistice is just a week off...a sad Armistice, for it means nothing as far as the word goes. It has meant nothing to the world in over four long years of war—instead of observing Armistice this year, the American peoples had better get down and pray for the men of 1943 who are trying to win another victory for the various groups back home to scuttle.

—This little column does not want to leave the slightest impression on anybody that this country is going to the bow-wows...we honestly believe the men in charge of affairs, regardless of party, are doing a great job and will lead this nation to greater glory for humanity. BUT there is a constant propaganda, almost in every group of citizens to belittle the Washington government, to lower the people's confidence, to poison one group against another. This kind of stuff is not helping win a bad war. It behooves every citizen to analyze every thing like that before they give their approval. You may bet there is something no good under such chips. A big bunch of spell-binders, rabble-rousers and hell-raisers are being enrolled, and none of them are subject to military service. Better watch out who talks and what they say.

At present the Herald can be had one year for $1.00 anywhere.

15,000 Hens Wanted

Because of the increased demand for baby chicks from blood tested stock, we are in need of hatching eggs from at least 200 new flocks.

We offer you a longer season, a steady, cash premium market for your eggs, a substantial saving on quality baby chicks and an opportunity to have your flock culled and blood tested by a State Licensed Flock Selector and Pullorum Testing Agent. We feel sure that these advantages will enable you to realize more profit than ever before from your hens and pullets.

We are buying eggs NOW from heavy breed and cross mated flocks and will shortly be buying from Leghorn and other light breed flocks. If you do not have cockerels, we can obtain them for you at a reasonable price.

Should the Government Begin To Advertise?

It might seem that a newspaper would approve the expenditure of a few millions of government money to pay certain kinds of war effort advertising. Yes, it does seem that the government should not ride the newspapers so much. However we have noticed the past year, that when it was thought necessary to advertise for soldiers, WAC's and WAVES, that only the larger city dailies got the pie. That's the angle that most small papers will object to. If the government pays railroads and bus lines for transportation for the personnel and other things hauled, then it would seem fair to pay the newspapers for essential publicity. After all, every important step taken by the government must have the people in on the deal and to do the job, it seems fair that whoever renders service, that they be paid for it.

But for the Congress to make an appropriation of thirty or forty millions of dollars for advertising and then let most of it go to the big city dailies and but little or nothing to the small town papers, there ought to be a howl. We notice that the army and navy gets their best men out of the small towns, and it would be a weak government that did not depend upon the rural town districts that they call upon so much. So if the government is going to pay for advertising, let's have it prorated to each and every paper on a fair basis of some kind.

About The Miners—

Some how we are glad that we have spoken up for the coal miners. We concluded a long time ago that of all men in this nation, doing essential work to help win the war, they are the miners and that they have not had the proper consideration. The War Labor Board seems to be a one-sided affair, and luckily the miners have gotten a chance to deal with the government and not be held as pawns by the operators and their henchmen who get the profits out of the blood and sweat of the miners.

About The War—

This country's big machine, both in planes, guns and experienced diplomats are all going into high gear these days. There is no question how the war struggle is ending. The only fear that a wide survey reveals is here in our own America. We are strong and effective when acting like he men, but puny politicians seeking personal glory and power can wreck our peace.

We still believe by December 15, (with thirty days grace) that old Hitler's gang will crumble and cry for help from somebody besides the Russians. And as for Japan, she is beginning to see what is coming to her, or does she? It will take about thirty days for our big navy and planes to transfer from the Atlantic to the Pacific and Indian Oceans, after Hitler gets all his country can stand, then watch the yellow bellies pop open, across the Pacific. Tojo, the boys are going to get your gate.

The Witt twins write from Camp Abbott, Oregon. Dean says "Well, I have moved a long way from home —and you think it doesn't make you homesick. Oh man! I'm up here in the mountains and it sure is cold. It's either snowing or raining every day. I'm sorry to hear about the game, but they've still got 2 strikes left, and I'm still yelling and have faith in the team and boys. You know the paper mother is sending me sure helps a man when he's lonesome for home." Stay in there Dean —Everything down in Hamlin is Ok.

The Herald has a letter from T. W. Havens who is working at a ship yard in Houston, telling us that his son Thurston's ship, the Bristol, was sunk in the waters near Naples, on Sept. 13, and that Thurston had sent them a telegram that he was all right, on Sept. 28. We have known all along that this Hamlin boy was on that ship and have worried quite a bit as to his welfare. All the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Havens in Hamlin will be glad of the good news.

Harold Fletcher was here from Pittsburg, Kansas to spend the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fletcher. Harold is taking his Apprentice Seaman training in the Kansas State Teachers College in Pittsburg. He was accompanied by Miss Mary McAnulty, a teacher of Glenpool, Okla., who was also a guest in the Fletcher home.

The Herald appreciates getting a copy of The Stars and Stripes (Africa Edition) as a courtesy of our friend First Lieutenant Dock Humphreys, with the Engineers in that region. As was expected, it is mainly about armies and action. To Ye Herald man the most catchy part of the whole paper was in the section, "What'd Ya Write". Here are some samples:

There's nothing more important than a GI Mail Call. To a starry-eyed soldier it means several pages of wonderful, gossy words from his honey; to the soldier father, it means the first crude, kindergarten drawing from his little daughter; to a son it means warm words from the people who love him most.

So, no matter how tired he is, or how busy, the average soldier always finds time to sit down and fill up a V-mail form telling his folks that they don't have to worry because he is OK, telling his daughter that she is going to be a wonderful artist when she grows up, and telling his wife or sweetheart that he still loves her. He wants to get an answer.

Whether he admits it or not, the American soldier is a terrific sentimentalist. Distance and time have transformed the simplest things back home into the most desirable things in the world. And that affects his letter-writing, particularly to his little woman.

OFTEN ANXIOUS

His letter to the love of his life is often an anxious, gushy letter which goes something like this: My Darling Sugarpudd:

You know, of course, that I'm not the jealous type, but don't you think that you've been going to too many of those USO dances? Last night I dreamt that there was a thousand soldiers, all leering at you. Of course, my little pigeon, I don't expect you to stay cooped up all the time. I want you to have some fun, and all that, but you know what wolver these soldiers are.

Your own, Cuddleboy

That's a composite letter, something a guy might write when nobody is looking over his shoulder. But here's what the boys themselves have to say:

S-Sgt. William Platts, Niagara Falls, N. Y., writes three letters a day to his "sugarfoot". "I write one in the morning and usually I get in the mood and write another one in the afternoon and then, of course, I write one in the evening", he said. Then he thought a while and explained, "Y'see, we're in love."

"I just wrote her about the flies here", Platt continued. "I told her how the flies shake off the flea powder that I throw on them, drink up the fly spray, bite the hell out of me and then just walk off with a very superior look in their eyes."

"I wrote Mom too," he added. "I told her that the first thing I do when I get back will be to take her to all the night spots. Mom doesn't drink, but she's a swell dancer."

"I got a couple of girls," said T-5 Constantine Solazzi, Milburn, N. J., "but the trouble is that every once in a while one of them gets too serious. When that happens, I just stop writing to her until she cools off. I guess I'll just keep doing that until I make up my mind which one I want," he said with a satisfied smile on his face.

S-Sgt. Walter Schmid, Evanston, Ill., is past that stage. Schmid's been married for five years now. "My wife got a big kick out of an olive branch I sent her," said Schmid. "It was a branch of a tree under which I took my first bath out of a GI helmet. She likes to save things like that," he said. Schmid never gripes. "What she doesn't know won't hurt her," he explained.

MOSQUITO TOPIC

"I don't like to stick a bunch of things in one letter," said Pfc. Walter Kroneberger, San Marino, Calif. "I like to write about one subject in one letter at one time." In his last letter home from Sicily, Walter wrote about four pages about those mosquitoes. "I could have written a book."

Walter now writes to one person less—his girl just wrote him that she's now engaged to be married to somebody else. "The way I figure it," he said, "if a girl doesn't want to wait for you, then she's not worth waiting for."

"My girl's worth waiting for," said Pvt. August Shmitt, Bronx, N. Y. "She better be, I just wrote her a 16 page letter." Then he looked a little dreamy, "I guess I was just in the mood," August said.

It was Sgt. John Kasalonis, Wilkes Barre, Pa., who glumly said, "I just don't write any letters."

Entertained With Barbecue Supper

The Shell Pipeline Corporation entertained their employees Saturday evening, Nov. 30, with a barbecue supper at the Shell Station, north of Hamlin.

The supper was served cafeteria style from a table centered with chrysanthemums and autumn leaves.

Other guests were Messrs. Blackstone and Green of the Highway Patrol, who both made talks, and Ray Huling, Hamlin City Marshal.

Junior Festival Reports Success

Don't ever be afraid to try something new! Because people are still anxious for improvements. That is what the Juniors say.

Very meekly did we advance something different. All through the weeks of preparation we secretly held our breath. Not until October 30, after everything was over did we relax. Success!

Not only did we gain confidence from our Junior Festival, but it also inspired us to other advancement.

By popular vote of the entire student body, Ola Jean McInroe is All School Favorite. She was the candidate from the Junior class. The other favorites elected as class favorites are: Shirley Baggett, from the freshman class; Jessie Myers, sophomore; Eloise Binnicker, junior; Frances Nell Gardner, senior.

The sophomore class won first place with their float.

This is the results of our Junior Festival. We as a class are satisfied with the outcome, which depended on your cooperation. This is our contribution to a more successful school year.

WE SLING GYPSUM

By The Gypsie Reporters
(Francis Nichols—Geraldine Brown)

Pvt. Glen W. Bond of Camp Barkley visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bond Sunday.

Miss Winifred Carr who is employed in Abilene, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Carr Sunday.

Have you seen the smiles on the faces of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brown this week? Well it's because during the last two weeks they have received a cablegram and two letters from their son, Cpl. W. A. Brown Jr., who is fighting somewhere for Uncle Sam. This fine boy volunteered in July, 1942, and has not been home since he enlisted. Maybe this fine Marine, along with thousands of others, will get to return to their homes soon.

Miss Mary Lou Bond who is employed in Abilene, spent the week end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bond.

Mrs. J. B. Early and her son Audrey Early visited her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Crain in Abilene over the week end.

Mrs. Pete Wiechkoske is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brown. Mrs. Wiechkoske has been visiting in Houston for the past four weeks. Her husband, Cpl. Pete, is stationed in California.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Dunn and girls visited Mr. and Mrs. Maberry in McCauley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tate of Hamlin visited Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Jackson on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander of McCauley visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brown Sunday.

Mrs. Ben Wilcox of Hamlin visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Anderson Sunday.

Many of the people were present Sunday to hear Bro. Johnson of Neinda preach Sunday morning and Sunday evening. Everyone enjoyed his messages. As to yet we do not know who will fill the pulpit Sunday but it will be announced later.

We were very sorry to hear that Miss Peggy Polk was ill this week. We hope she will soon be back in school.

It's always a big crowd in these war days. But the Long Distance operator keeps the calls moving quickly unless they just get too many for the circuits. • If she says the circuits are busy, you can help by canceling your call if it isn't really important. ## MORE POWER!

WE CHEERED, when Uncle Sam called on industry to work 24 hours a day, seven days a week, UNTIL THE WAR IS WON!

Continuous production, you see, is nothing new to us. We've always worked that way. It's one big reason why we were prepared to serve the army training camps, the flying schools, and the new war plants in West Texas—all in addition to serving your home and business.

We are proud that our service to you has not suffered despite the unforeseen problems created by the war. We believe it is a credit to the American way of doing things... a tribute to the American system of free initiative and free enterprise.

The electric industry throughout the nation is providing power where it's needed when it's needed... MORE THAN THE COMBINED TOTAL OF ALL THE ENEMY NATIONS!

This is in contrast to claims by proponents of socialization who predicted an immediate and disastrous shortage of electric power. The proof is:

- Today, in time of America's greatest need, the country's electric operating companies are supplying over 90% of all the power commercially generated;
- Last year they paid $510,000,000 in taxes, enough money to equip 2,400,000 soldiers or build 9,273 fighting planes;
- The average home now gets over TWICE as much electricity for its money as it did 15 years ago.

It represents American genius at its best. In little more than two generations electric systems owned by the public (through millions of small stockholders) have become indispensable in American homes AND IN AMERICA'S WAR EFFORT.

It has been possible because America's electric companies have been built and operated the American way—by good business management.

POT SHOTS FROM McCAULLEY

BY GEO. DARDEN

The school carnival was quite a success. Something over $200 was realized from the queen's race. Charlene Mustain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McHone, was crowned queen of McCauley High by her escort, Holman Boyd. Charlene was a freshman. Other queens were Patsy Berry, senior queen; Nelda Lee, a junior; Betty Lou Sanders, sophomore queen. Betty Ann and Smitie Dan, little twins of Mr. and Mrs. George Maberry, were crown bearer and flower girl. Sales from drinks and sandwiches netted the P-T. A. over $27.00.

Walter Cypert, sailor boy, was home over the week end. Walter has been stationed at T. C. U. but is being transferred to a new base.

Sailor boy C. E. Dick Jr. was at home on a few days leave last week visiting with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Dick. C. E. is stationed at Pittsburg, Kansas.

Buford Jackson, who is employed in a Rotan bank, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jackson.

Visiting over the week end with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert George was Miss Jimmie Dee George, who is an employee of the Roby bank.

Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Dick, C. E. Jr. and Mrs. Sallie Parker and little son visited last week end with relatives at Crosbyton.

Mrs. Hallie McFatter visited last Sunday with a nephew, H. O. Roland Jr. in Anson after he had flown in from California on a 48 hour leave.

Mrs. R. L. Miers tells us that her brother, Pfc. Jim (Todd) Rushing, has sailed and is somewhere in the South Pacific.

Mrs. James Parker and baby of California are visiting in the home of Mrs. W. H. Parker.

Melvin Hunter hands us another dollar for a year's subscription to the Herald. Better watch your date on the paper as you might miss a copy.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Maberry and son of Dallas visited last week end with relatives in McCauley and Sylvester.

Walter Weaver of Stephenville visited his sister, Mrs. Lottie Rector in McCauley last week end.

Mrs. Walker, Sam Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Walker and three sons of Hodges, Texas, visited last Sunday in the homes of Mrs. Ora Darden, Mrs. W. M. Keller and Pa Martin.

O-O-O

COMMENT No. 1.—When the war will end is being discussed pro and con by most every person. Some of the big shots predict next year and some from 4 to 5 years hence, so all we know to do is to hope. As far as knowing what the future may bring, well that is impossible for mere human beings. There is one thing sure we must all put everything we have into the war effort as though we knew the war would last for many years to come. There are too many people grabbing for the mighty dollar. The boys over there are thinking of winning and getting back home. A boy's life can not be valued in dollars and cents, but it is going to take dollars and cents to buy what they must have to win. No doubt but what there is plenty of money rusting in the banks all over the U. S. which should be at work for the protection of civilization. A lot of folks still have a notion that they can take it with them when they die or at least that is the impression that they leave with the rest of the world. A big bank account does not make a big man. The near future will bring about the distribution of wealth, and the big hog who has always eaten the little hog is going to find himself in the same pen with the little hogs. Labor and capital must and will work hand in hand or civilization will crumble. Still glad to live in a country where it does not take an A B degree to do a little predicting of our own.

Plan 'Schools of Soil' For Young Workers

Specific Farm Skills Now Being Developed

Training of non-farm high school students for wartime farm work has two objectives, according to the plan announced by the U. S. department of agriculture.

One is to familiarize these young people with rural and farm life, and the other to provide training in specific farm skills.

Classes in farm work are being given in schools throughout the country this spring, so that the farmers' valuable time will not have to be used to teach young workers their job when they are supposed to be helping him. He will be responsible only for on-the-farm training where individual requirements demand it, or special processes are involved.

Among the jobs being taught are cleaning dairy barns, brushing cows, whitewashing building interiors, milking, pitching hay, harnessing and driving horses, operating tractors, and machinery repair. Some of these may sound simple, but the department of agriculture points out that each has its little technique that makes the difference between an efficient piece of work and one that is slipshod.

Other jobs for the young will include hoeing, weeding, picking fruit and berries, harvesting sugar beets, feeding chickens, gathering eggs, and—for some of the girls—assisting "Mrs. Farmer" with the cooking, dishwashing, scrubbing, sweeping and dusting that are the "KP" of the farm army.

The training program is primarily to be the responsibility of the U. S. Office of Education and the state departments of education—in other words, the responsibility of the public schools from coast to coast. Where possible, the farming activities will be conducted on farms or in real situations.

In each community it is planned to bring before the prospective young workers speakers such as farmers, vocational agriculture teachers, farm labor specialists of the U. S. employment service, representatives of agricultural colleges and of farm organizations, county agents, and others who can speak authoritatively on the many phases of farm work. Local facilities such as public markets, milk plants and fruit storage plants also will be utilized.

On-the-job group training will be carried on where it is found desirable. It will be given by a teacher of vocational agriculture or some other approved individual.

Using Poisons on Crops

Pests which attack practically all vegetable crops can be destroyed by toxic substances without undue danger to humans if properly applied and the vegetables and fruits are thoroughly washed and handled after harvest.

On potatoes and other root crops where the tops are not used for food they should be washed thoroughly and not be sprayed or dusted within 15 or 30 days before picking. Poison remains on plants longer when dry.
